Astrological Midpoints

History of Midpoint Combinations

What is a Midpoint?

The use of midpoints historically goes back to 1200 AD when Guido Bonati, a famous Italian Astrologer, used half sums, otherwise known as midpoints, in his interpretation of a chart. More recently at the turn of the century, Alan Leo, a famous British Astrologer, used midpoints along with solar arc directions. I personally have no knowledge of the use of midpoints combined with the 90-degree dial prior to its use by Reinhold Ebertin and Alfred Witte at the beginning of the Nineteen Hundreds. The history of solar arcs on the other hand, goes back to Ptolemy who used primary directions in the second century.

A midpoint is the center between any two points, which in Astrology relates to the center between two planets and/or personal points, including the Midheaven, Ascendant, and the Nodes. This center point is the meeting of planetary energies that becomes active through the process of growth, relating to the passage of time. We relate to the aspects formed by the heavenly bodies through spatial relationship. This system as I mentioned earlier goes back to Reinhold Ebertin who, near the turn of the century developed this system along with Alfred Witte by taking a 360-degree wheel and breaking it down into a 90-degree dial. Ebertin believed that hard aspects created events in one's life thus; the use of the 90-degree dial became a viable tool for forecasting future events. Ebertin started by placing the planets into three sections -- 30 degrees for Cardinal Positions which include: Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn points; 30 degrees for Fixed Positions which include: Taurus, Leo, Scorpio and Aquarius points; and 30 degrees for Mutable Positions which include: Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius and Pisces points.

This system can be seen on the 90 degree dial as 0 to 30 degrees as Cardinal, 30 to 60 degrees Fixed and 60 to 90 degrees as Mutable positions for the planetary points to be placed in accordance of their quality.

How to Use this System

This system can be used to add great insight into the interpretations of the natal chart through the use of delineation of transits, progressions, solar arcs and degree arcs. In fact it can be used in almost any interpretive form of astrology where timing is added into the equation. Timing is where this type of Astrology becomes very precise and accurate. The best way to use this system is to incorporate the natal midpoint along with the time that its energy becomes activated by directing the planets into the future. This is done by Solar Arc, which is the distance it takes for the Sun to move from one day to the next at the time of one's birth, which is approximately 59' to 1 degree 2', which is then added to the age in question. We can also use degree arcs, known as age arcs, which is equivalent to one degree equals one year, times the number of years old you are now and/or when the specific event in question occurred. It may sound difficult, but it's not once you become familiar with this system of delineation. When using this tool you will notice that I have included health interpretations along with dietary issues, which often come up when there is a lack of good nutrition or assimilation of nutrients. This can be seen easily through the activation of the natal midpoints on the 90-degree dial. Thus, I included medical interpretations in most of the midpoint structures.

Each midpoint structure has many meanings, so I have narrowed it down to the most important interpretation of each of them based upon my years of past experience. These interpretations are done in the higher and lower, or shadow manifestations. We are all on the earth plane of existence, thus no matter how enlightened we may seem, we still have to deal with our shadow. Many midpoints include births, health areas and transitions and only a part of what is said may apply to you personally. But on the other hand the whole interpretation may apply. I have included the positive and negative side of each of these midpoints so as to reach all probable outcomes.

Many times there will be others who are read through one's personal chart, since these people become the players in one's personal movie. These players include midpoints with:

Moon	=	Mother and the Feminine principal
Saturn	=	Father/Business Associates, masculine principal
Mercury/Mars	=	Brothers and Male Relatives
Mercury/Venus	=	Sisters and Female Relatives
Sun/Node	=	Children
Venus/Uranus	=	Female Friends
Mars/Uranus	=	Male Friends
Jupiter	=	Grandparents

Relationships include almost any midpoint, which involves the Sun, Moon, Venus and Mars combined with the personal points, Asc, Mc, Moon and Node and always be aware of the rulerships of these positions.

Your Birth Chart: Midpoint Combinations

The natal midpoints represent our birth traits, our strengths, weaknesses and potential for personal growth. Each midpoint could involve others who are part of our life's path. Thus, a natal midpoint may apply to family and friends as opposed to the energy being directed to the self. Likewise, the medical influences and health issues mentioned are often manifest by others in our lives as opposed to the self. The possible medical problems, as well as the "shadow side" of a midpoint may never become an active manifestation of the midpoint's energy when addressed early. Keep an open mind when reading the interpretations of a midpoint since they are geared to both the higher and lower manifestations of the energy, and be aware that medical references should not be treated as a diagnosis. Psychological or physical symptoms or problems should be directed to the appropriate professional for diagnosis and evaluation. The timing of the events indicated by these natal midpoints are activated by progressions, directions and finally transits as the final touch off point sometime in the future.

Moon=Mercury/Pluto Natal

There is a capacity to benefit through the buying and selling of homes or dealing with mortgages. This also gives deep penetrating abilities to reach large groups of people and sway them to one's way of thinking. There's the possibility of having a controlling or willful mother, and there could also be news of the loss of a family member, which has been expected. If this energy is used positively, it can give one the capacity to understand how to transmute negative energy, somewhat like a psychic surgeon.

Moon=Mercury/Node Natal

This relates to the connections made within one's personal family, especially siblings or other relatives. This also denotes communicating easily with someone whom one has a history. Many times a sibling is born into the family under this, or there can be bonding with others of like mind to form a type of family, represented by a group consciousness. Thus, this relates to people who have a similar mental interest gathering together to discuss a particular subject where feelings and emotions are involved.

Moon=Venus/Saturn Natal

Emotional separations in the family can happen now due to not getting the nurturing one needs. It can cause inhibitions, created by emotional deprivation in early life. This also relates to a period of difficulty due to separations in the love life. There 's usually a feeling of being lonely and separated from the ones we care about. One also could work in interior decorating or the home, and/or there may be a need to help a family member financially now.

Moon=Mars/Neptune Natal

Women who have the ability to create illusion surrounding their life are influenced by this energy. On the positive side, it denotes a woman who is very spiritually oriented, and/or a gifted psychic or intuitive. On the negative, it can cause a weakening of the immune system due to a lack of assimilation of nutrition or due to taking in toxic substances. This also relates to perceptual difficulties, not seeing things as they really are, thus causing difficulties with sight and/or even insight. The positive way of using this energy is to be a storyteller or a person who has the ability to document historical records.

Sun=Mars/Jupiter Natal

Expressive men who bring happiness into one's life are a manifestation of this energy. These are the successful men we attract to ourselves that bring in a healthy belief system and are athletic by nature. This relates to the successful athlete, the person who is competitive by nature, or is in competitive sports. It gives great health and stamina when our physical body is at its peak. One can find happiness through the meeting of a potential marriage partner and the potential birth of a male child with a strong physical body.

Sun=Mars/Uranus Natal

A group of men who like to socialize with one another can come together now and/or it represents a new boyfriend in a woman's chart. There can be quick and unexpected changes in relationships, as well as having a sense of excitement when it comes to meeting a new person in one's life. This is a time of engagement to a unique and/or rebellious type of personality and there can also be sudden unexpected events involving friends. This is considered a very exciting time in one's life, but caution needs to be taken against unexpected and/or unplanned pregnancy. Medically this causes spasms and irregular heart beat.

Venus=Sun/Saturn Natal

The mature love and/or the attraction to an older person are reflections of this energy. The father is usually attractive and well liked in the community and could have created financial security within the family. There can also be stability within a relationship created through financial wisdom due to long-range goal planning. On the other side of this, there can be separations in relationships due to one's love and/or financial needs not being met. This relates to abandonment by the lover and/or a fear of being betrayed by others on a professional or partnership level.

Mars=Mercury/Jupiter Natal

This is a good influence under which to seek legal council and there may be difficulty when one reacts in haste. It also relates contract renewal. Many famous athletes have this energy. Firestorms or strong winds occur with this, so metaphorically you could apply this to one's personal life, meaning that if you had harsh words with another there may be stormy moods in the future. There could also be the birth of a male child into the family.

Jupiter=Moon/Sun Natal

There can be abundance in one's personal life, and or a child could be born into a wealthy family. It gives the desire to travel and see the world and experience different belief systems and philosophies of other cultures. There is normally a need to move up in the world with this. Thus this is a time of moving and/or expanding in one's personal home. This is one of the influences that gives good luck and opportunities in life, so people with this usually look at life with the glass half full. This relates to the philanthropist and there is a need to have the best education money can buy. Thus it gives one the capacity to be a perpetual student, always in a state of expanding one's personal awareness. This also relates to the sports enthusiast, the hunter, or the person who is struck by Cupid's arrow, thus love is never far away.

Jupiter=Moon/Mercury Natal

Traveling great distances to see one's family is a manifestation of this, as it gives an interest in genealogy as well as having interest in historical information about the past. There's a tendency to focus on the belief system of the family and/or the philosophy of what one perceives to be their tribe. This also relates to the influential woman and/or an influential family in the community. There can be good news and a focus on higher education along with writing and communication skills.

Jupiter=Uranus (Higher Intellect) Natal

When Jupiter combines with Uranus there's a desire to study and learn about knowledge on advanced subjects. Many times, one desires to go on to college or university and study advanced technical subjects like astrology and/or being inspired by the quest for knowledge. There can be many opportunities surrounding higher education, as in a scholarship being given and/or the beginning and/or ending of higher education. Seminars and all sorts of classes and/or any form of continuing education falls under this. People who believe in higher consciousness carry this energy, having good fortune and advancement in life. There is also the desire to explore foreign lands, having a strong sense of adventure and excitement. One has a desire to take chances through speculation, thus one can win in a big way. Religion also plays a role, since one likes to make changes in what they perceive as a sedentary system which may lack the freedom of belief that one's looking for. Medically this rules the hepatic system: hips, thighs, calves, blood pressure, and blood disorders.

Saturn=Mars/Ascendant Natal

One can hold themselves back from their full potential due to early inhibitions. Thus, if one works with their early environmental conditioning they could overcome some of the obstacles that seem to hold them back or keep them in the same place without advancement. People who have this seem to have physical strength and a sense of purpose. One usually has the intention to somehow get the job done no matter what the obstacles are. There can also be sadness which is shared with others due to a loss or concern for others.

Uranus=Moon/Sun Natal

Sudden unexpected changes in the love nature is a reflection of this, since it gives the desire and need to individuate in relationships with others, as well as the capacity to separate from them quickly. When involved in relationships, there can be rebellious actions that seem to come from out of the blue. This represents people who have the will to be different and unique, and they seem to march to the beat of a different drummer. On the positive side, these are usually brilliant people who are unique in their particular style, which they seem to change often. They are highly unpredictable and sometimes have a peculiar way about them, leaving others wondering, "Where did they come up with that?"

Uranus=Moon/Mercury Natal

One has a high degree of aptitude for many different subjects. There can be attraction to unusual or different types of friends where the common denominator is the ability to communicate in an avant-garde manner. Many times one's friends become family; in fact, they're usually closer than one's own family members are. There can also be connections with people who have a high degree of integrity or position in the community who can help one to advance quickly on a professional level. Thus, one has the capacity to make decisions fast, along with having a peculiar insight into the motivations of others.

Uranus=Jupiter (Higher Intellect) Natal

When Jupiter combines with Uranus there's a desire to study and learn about knowledge on advanced subjects. Many times, one desires to go on to college or university and study advanced technical subjects like astrology and/or being inspired by the quest for knowledge. There can be many opportunities surrounding higher education, as in a scholarship being given and/or the beginning and/or ending of higher education. Seminars and all sorts of classes and/or any form of continuing education falls under this. People who believe in higher consciousness carry this energy, having good fortune and advancement in life. There is also the desire to explore foreign lands, having a strong sense of adventure and excitement. One has a desire to take chances through speculation, thus one can win in a big way. Religion also plays a role, since one likes to make changes in what they perceive as a sedentary system which may lack the freedom of belief that one's looking for. Medically this rules the hepatic system: hips, thighs, calves, blood pressure, and blood disorders.

Pluto=Moon/Midheaven Natal

Being in a controlled situation due to the women one works with is a manifestation of this. It rules the dominant mother or controlling family circumstances. There may be power over the masses, which puts one in a leadership position. One has the capacity to transmute energy, becoming a healer as well as having the ability to manifest things easily in one's life. Many psychologists and therapists carry this energy. There can also be transitions; thus births and deaths in the family are part of this energy. This is a very powerful influence worthy of understanding since it has such a strong power over one's personal life.

Pluto=Node (Transformational Associations) Natal

When Pluto and the Node come together, associations can come into one's life that can transform. These connections are usually intense and have an end goal or an intention. This relates to influential people, such as a political leader or someone who has control over the masses. This also relates to large groups of people who come together for a common purpose that transforms the existing policy. This can be the beginning or ending of very important associations that could ultimately change one's life for the better. These connections are karmic in that they help us to advance quickly on a soul level. On a psychological level, this brings awareness of others and the consciousness of self and yet there's the potential to lose consciousness of others by not knowing how they really feel. This denotes transitions and births of people to whom we are very close and it rules the reproductive cycle.

Node=Moon/Midheaven Natal

These are the connections one makes on a professional level or the associations one has to their family that are present for most of one's life. It's when and where one can meet someone new who will be in their life for an extended period of time and/or it could be a time of joining others in a group association, thus ruling the family lineage or genealogy. There's the capacity to move up in the world with others and/or to be with others and or meeting a future mate.

Node=Pluto (Transformational Associations) Natal

When Pluto and the Node come together, associations can come into one's life that can transform. These connections are usually intense and have an end goal or an intention. This relates to influential people, such as a political leader or someone who has control over the masses. This also relates to large groups of people who come together for a common purpose that transforms the existing policy.
